

CyberIDLock™

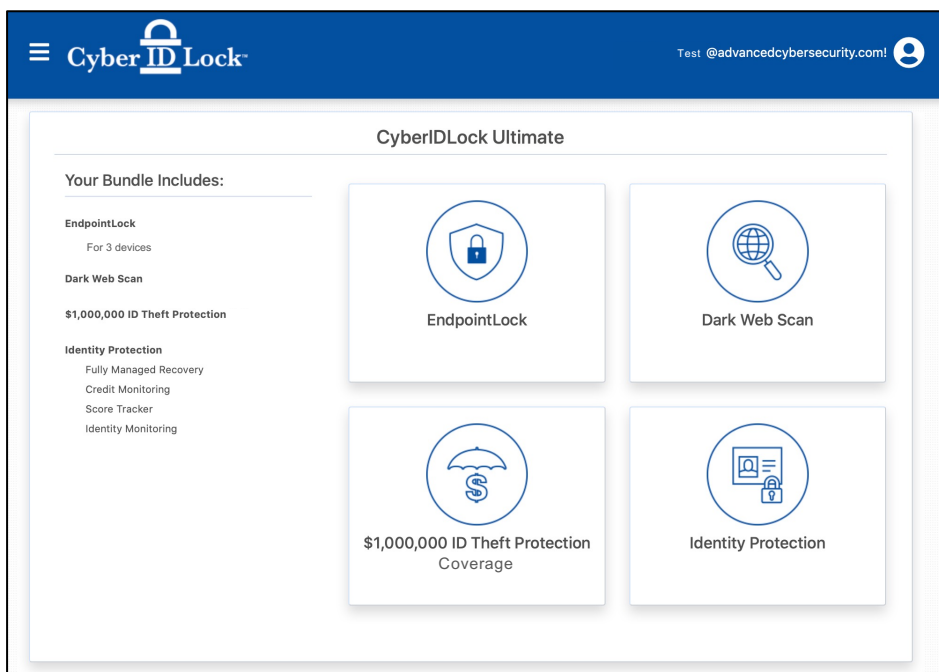

Identity Theft Protection Plan

Powered by EndpointLock™ Keystroke Encryption

Identity theft happens every day and the amount of victims is steadily increasing. With the staggering number of personal records stolen in data breaches last year, identity fraud is nearly impossible to avoid.

CyberIDLock's secret weapon against identity theft is EndpointLock, our proprietary keystroke encryption software app that easily installs on any PC or mobile device, up to 3 devices. This proprietary cyber security tool protects all of their personal information by stopping keylogging spyware, one of the most common methods used to steal everything you type into your device including user names, passwords, credit card data, banking information, emails and texts. In addition to keystroke protection, CyberIDLock's comprehensive Monitoring and Alerts will help to detect fraudulent activity in its early stages so customers can take action and begin the recovery process. Our Fully Managed Recovery includes white glove restoration services. And up to $1,000,000 Personal ID Theft Protection Coverage provides reimbursement for stolen funds and other costs. See back for more details.

Trust and Excellence in Cyber Security

ACS products take a preventative approach to identity theft protection by encrypting all keystrokes being typed into any application on any PC, IOS or Android device without any required changes to applications. It is this "preventative" layer of security at the initial input of any keystroke that differentiates Advanced Cyber Security Corp from other offerings in the marketplace.

EndpointLock™ has been chosen by top financial institutions to help protect their employees and the personal information of their customers.
